

Pamela J. Sybert

Rank: Adjunct Faculty
Department: Applied Gerontology
College: Public Affairs and Community Service
Joined UNT: 1993

Education:

M.S.: 1999 UNT Administration of Aging Organizations
M.S. 1980 UNT Speech Communication (Radio/TV/Film)
B. S. 1971 UNT Education

Professional Affiliations:

Secretary, Texas Nonprofit Management Assistance Network; Member, Family/Senior Resource Allocation Committee, United Way of Denton County; Advisory Board Member, Interfaith Ministries, Denton; Member and Co-founder North Texas Director of Volunteers in Agencies

Position:

Director, Educational Consortium for Volunteerism, Center for Public Service, UNT

Courses:

Volunteer Management Concepts and Applications; Introduction to Philanthropy and Fundraising

Contact Information

Phone: 940 565-4417
Email: sybert@unt.edu

Volunteer Work:

Volunteer Coordinator of Unity Church of New Hope; meal delivery to homebound elderly for SPAN; warehouse and pantry work for Christian Community Action; audio and video narration for numerous nonprofit organizations;

Present Research Interests:

Volunteerism, Senior and Boomer Volunteers, Image of Older Adults in the Media, and Literacy

Background

Pamela had a successful career in radio broadcasting before studying gerontology and volunteerism. As Director of the Educational Consortium for Volunteerism, she teaches courses, engages in extensive community outreach, coordinates the community service internships, and administers the programs and certificates in Volunteer and Community Resource Management and nonprofit management.