

MASTER'S GENERAL STUDIES IN AGING (45 HRS)

>>VIEW COMPLETE DESCRIPTIONS IN THE UNT GRADUATE CATALOG

REQUIRED COURSES: 9 APPLIED GERONTOLOGY COURSES (27 HRS)

AGER 5500 Retirement and Retirement Preparation (3 hrs)
AGER 5560 Seminar on Minority Aging (3 hrs)
AGER 5600 Housing for the Elderly (3 hrs)
AGER 5710 Health Aspects of Human Aging (3 hrs)
AGER 5780 Federal, State, and Local Programs in Aging (3 hrs)
AGER 5860 Seminar on the Psychology of Aging (3 hrs)
AGER 5880 Ethical Issues in an Aging Society (3 hrs)
AGER 5940 Proseminar on Applications in Practice (3 hrs)
AGER 6150 Theories of Aging (3 hrs)

INTERNSHIP: 1 COURSES (3 HRS)

AGER 5840 Internship in Administration of Programs in Aging (3 hrs)

MINOR FIELD (6-12 HRS)

With the major advisor's approval, GSAG students may select from 6 to 12 hours in a minor field of study which complements the applied gerontology major. Students who do not wish to pursue a minor select 15 elective hours of AGER courses that constitute an integrated program.

ELECTIVES: 2-4 COURSES (3-9 HRS)

Applied Gerontology or Related Electives (Selected in consultation with faculty advisor)

