International Forum on
Educating Troubled Children/Youth: Innovative Approaches,
Alternative Settings, and Multidisciplinary Collaboration
Resulting in Positive Outcomes

February 9 - 10, 2007

Tuscany All Suites Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, NV

This Forum has been developed in response to the international concern for providing quality services, within a safe and nurturing educational environment, for a diverse population of children/youth with challenging behaviors. The Forum will focus on practical issues and solutions to promote positive educational outcomes, and much more!

Who Should Attend? Teachers, supervisors, assessment personnel, administrators, and other professionals who have the responsibility for the delivery of effective services to students with challenging behaviors; teacher educators who are designing and implementing personnel preparation programs and others responsible for staff development, and researchers whose area of interest is on effective programming for students with challenging behaviors. Teams from the same district/agency/institution are encouraged to attend. A Team Discount is Available!

Topical Workshops and Activities.

- Past to Present Perspectives on Educating Troubled Children/Youth and the Challenges Ahead
- The Many Faces of Troubled Children/Youth: Addressing Issues Surrounding Cultural, Ethnic, and Linguistic Diversity
- Arrested Development: Stemming the Growth of Antisocial, Oppositional and Aggressive Behavior Among Troubled Children and Youth
- Collaborative Innovations in Serving Troubled Children and Youth
- Multidisciplinary Approaches: Focus on Transition and Reintegration
