<sup>2</sup> The State of Texas requires, through the Texas Academic Skills Program (TASP), that all undergraduate students take a test over reading, writing and mathematical skills prior to enrolling in any college-level course work at Texas public institutions, unless they meet the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board exemptions in accordance with Texas law (Texas Education Code, Section 501.306). For additional TASP information, see “Texas Academic Skills Program (TASP)” in the Academics section of this catalog. The TASP test cannot be used in admissions decisions at UNT, but is necessary for adequate preregistration advising.

enrolls at UNT for either or both summer terms with the intent of returning to the home institution upon completion of summer studies. To remain at UNT after the first semester, a transient student must meet all normal admission requirements. Because of federal laws and immigration requirements, international students are not eligible to enroll at UNT as transient students.

<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to Subchapter S, Chapter 51, Texas Education Code, all state universities that do not have open admissions for undergraduates are required to revise their admission policies for new freshmen, effective with the 1998 fall semester. Students who do not meet the requirements for automatic or regular admission should refer to the section titled “Admission by Individual Review” for more information.
