

Andrew J. Scherbarth

University of North Texas
P.O. Box 311280 Denton, TX 76203-1280
Phone: (940) 594-3172 Email: ascherbarth@unt.edu

ACADEMIC HISTORY

2003-Current University of North Texas (UNT) GPA 3.7
Clinical Ph.D. Program in Health Psychology & Behavioral Medicine

HONORS

ABCT Student Special Interest Group Poster Award ABCT
Recipient of the National Alumni Fellowship KON
Two-time Recipient of a Graduate Student Travel Grant UNT
Two-time recipient of the Graduate Academic Scholarship UNT
Two-time recipient of the Board of Regents Full-Tuition Transfer Scholarship UNL

RECENT PUBLIC SERVICE

7/06-Current Friends of the Family Denton, TX
Cofacilitate psychoeducation class for CPS parents. Childcare duty.
7/04-5/05 Cofacilitated a violence intervention program with batterers.
1/04-1/05 Texas Psychological Assoc. Psi Chi Liaison Denton, TX
Wrote articles relevant to students, Contacted students.

RECENT EMPLOYMENT

1/06-Current Behavior Analysis and Technology Support Services
Collected behavioral data for behavioral interventions in the classroom.
Employ precision teaching to develop children's reading skills.
8/03-5/06 University of North Texas
Preparation/scoring of tests, gradebook maintenance, research duties.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Psychological Association of Graduate Students
Association of Behavior Analysis (ABA International)
Association of Behavioral & Cognitive Therapies (ABCT)
Graduate Association of Students in Psychology (GASP)
Society of Behavioral Medicine (SBM)

RESEARCH INTERESTS/ACTIVITIES

Physiological research interests include: quality of life, functional disorders, pain,
& chronic illness.
Psychosocial interests include: family relations, abuse, mindfulness, forgiveness;
Acceptance & Commitment Therapy, Behavioral Therapy.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- January 2006-Present Dr. Amy Murrell: Research Assistant on a team conducting Relational Frame Theory research. Responsible for contributing to various stages of research.
- Aug. 2003-Aug. 2004 Center for Psychosocial Health at University of North Texas: Research Assistant to Dr. Mark Vosvick. Responsible for contributing to various stages of research.
- Feb. 2002-Dec. 2002 Ruth Staples Child Development Lab at University of Nebraska: Research Assistant to Dr. Julia Torquati. Responsible for participant recruitment & data collection.

PRESENTATIONS

- Nov. 2006 Association of Behavioral & Cognitive Therapies Conference Chicago, IL
* Parenting Stress & Relational Frame Theory: Patterns of Learning
Scherbarth, Laborde, & Murrell
- March 2006 Society of Behavioral Medicine Conference San Francisco, CA
* Trauma, Dispositional Forgiveness, and Depression in People Living with HIV/AIDS.
Scherbarth, Ranucci, & Vosvick
- April 2005 Society of Behavioral Medicine Conference Boston, MA
* Spirituality, Self-Esteem & Depression in a HIV+ Population.
Scherbarth, Vosvick, & Clay
- Nov. 2004 Texas Psychological Association Conference San Antonio, TX
* How We Chose Our Graduate School & How We've Coped With Grad School.
Scherbarth & Covert
- March 2004 Society of Behavioral Medicine Conference Baltimore, MD
* HIV-Related Stigma, Forgiveness and Quality of Life in a Diverse HIV+ Population.
Scherbarth & Vosvick
- Aug. 2001 KON Conclave/Undergraduate Research Council Orlando, FL
* Spanking: Means or an End?

PUBLICATIONS

- 2002 Undergraduate Research Journal, Volume 1
* Dating, Assertiveness and Misconceptions of Assertion
- 2006 Five publications are in various stages of submission/publication