

The Rodeheaver Scholarship for Returning Peace Corps Volunteers

Sponsors: Drs. Daniel G and Denise P. Rodeheaver

Qualifications: Applicants must:

- Meet the minimum entrance and continuing academic performance standards of the University's Toulouse School of Graduate Studies at the time of any award;
- Maintain full-time enrollment at the University, unless they have fewer than twice the number of semester hours required to be full time remaining in their degree program;
- Enroll as a full-time graduate student with academic research interest in 1) sociopolitical ecology/environmental sociology or 2) development and social change, with an emphasis on developing societies;
- Have a major professor from the faculty whose tenure line is in the Department of Sociology;
- Be a returning Peace Corps Volunteer who has completed his/her service.

Funds Available: One annual award of no less than $1,000 will be credited to the recipient's account to help cover tuition and fees at UNT (subject to the availability of funds). The amount will be split equally between the Fall ($500) and Spring ($500) semesters following the awarding of the scholarship.

Application: Each applicant must complete and submit an application form including official transcripts before April 15 of the academic year preceding the award. The Student Award Committee of the Department of Sociology will present the qualified candidates to the Sociology faculty who will determine the recipient. The winner will be announced by April 30.
