

APA STYLE GUIDE – TOOLS AND REFERENCES

Resources from UNT Library Quick References (<http://www.library.unt.edu/ris/quick-reference>)

Bibliography Style Handbook \(APA\) The UIUC Writer's Workshop web page summarizes and illustrates the bibliographical formatting rules for the American Psychological Association (APA). It includes information about the recent changes found in the 5th edition of the APA Style Manual.

Using American Psychological Association \(APA\) Format \(Updated to 5th Edition\) From the Purdue University Online Writing Lab, this web page provides guidelines from the recently updated APA manual.

Citing Electronic Documentation: APA, Chicago, MLA Styles Provide examples of how to cite World Wide Web sources, electronic journals, personal communication (e-mail, etc.), and CD-ROMs using APA, Chicago and MLA styles. (Note: 4th edition APA Style Manual).

The Columbia Guide to Online Style Provides examples of APA style citations for FTP, WWW, telnet, and gopher sites as well as synchronous communications, e-mail, and news lists. (Note: 4th edition APA Style Manual).

Internet Resources

<http://citationmachine.net/>

Generates citations in APA and MLA format based on your input

<http://www.noodletools.com>

"Interactive tools designed to aid students and professionals with their online research. From selecting a search engine and finding some relevant sources, to citing those sources in MLA or APA style, NoodleTools makes online research easier!"

<http://www.apastyle.org/eleceref.html>

Explains citation rules and offers guides to spelling and removing bias from language.

<http://www.bedfordstmartins.com/online/cite6.html>

Covers structure of citations from a variety of sources and includes instructions on parenthetical notation.

<http://www.crk.umn.edu/library/links/apa5th.htm>

Quick and complete list of citation rules and includes a small section on style and formatting.

http://owl.english.purdue.edu/handouts/research/r_apa.html

Covers formatting and citation structure, includes links to templates and samples.

<http://www.lib.usm.edu/legacy/tutorials/apatutorial/tutorialindex.html>

A tutorial to help you set up your paper according to APA specifications, identify when parenthetical references are needed, construct in-text parenthetical references, and construct a Reference list encompassing different types of source material.

<http://www.psychwww.com/resource/APA%20Research%20Style%20Crib%20Sheet.htm>

Small section on structure of citations, very detailed coverage of style and formatting issues.

<http://www.uwsp.edu/psych/apa4b.htm>

Easy to use outline format; covers general writing and research paper tips in APA style.

<http://www.vanguard.edu/faculty/ddegelman/index.aspx?id=796>

Covers style and formatting guidelines including footnotes, notations, etc., has examples and links to sample papers.

Other Citation Styles

Internet Resources

<http://www.aresearchguide.com/styleguides.html>

Links to online style guides including APA, Chicago, Harvard, CGOS, and CBE; and links to resources for grammar, proofreading, and research.

Print Resources at Dallas Campus

Publication manual of the American Psychological Association BF76.7 .P83 2001