The UNT Dallas Library is a full-service library; however, it is NOT a traditional library. It is a “virtual” library and most of the materials are available on-line. Students and faculty who have not used the on-line resources may schedule an individual or group instruction session.

MATERIALS

- Students, faculty and staff may borrow books from the libraries on the Denton campus.
- Full-text journal articles are available through on-line databases or document delivery.
- A core print reference collection is available in the library.
- Many other reference materials are available on-line.

SERVICES

- A library staff member is available to assist you every hour the library and labs are open.
- Reference assistance is available in-house or from the Denton campus via telephone, on-line chat, or e-mail.
General Reference (Denton) - Toll-Free: (877) 872-0264
- Interlibrary Loan borrowing of materials not owned by UNT.
- TexShare Card: Through the UNTD library you may obtain a library card to use and often check out materials in other member libraries (academic and public).
- Library orientation and instruction sessions by request.

LAPTOPS - CURRENT UNT ID AND DRIVER'S LICENSE ARE NEEDED FOR CHECKOUT

- Available for three-hour checkout period.
- Wireless internet access.
- Use anywhere on campus.

3rd Floor GENERAL ACCESS LAB

- Available all hours the Campus is open.
- Quiet lab available in 201H on the 2nd floor.
- Full Internet access.
