

Volunteer Opportunities

❖ Women & Domestic Violence

- Acting to Change the Truth- A.C.T. is a new program offered by Denton County Friends of the Family that uses acting as a way to educate audiences about issues such as dating violence. Volunteers do not need to have any previous acting experience, and training on the issues being presented will be provided to all volunteers. Volunteers must be able to make a long term commitment to the program. For more information please (940) 387-5131 ext. 244
- Collin County Children’s Advocacy Center – Interns and volunteers needed to assist professionals who investigate and manage cases of alleged child abuse and neglect. Interns will work directly with clients and students will gain valuable knowledge and skills. For more information contact (972) 633-6600.
- Denton County Friends of the Family – Volunteers needed to assist in different projects and programs, such as Sexual Assault Advocacy Team, Speakers Bureau, childcare, office support, group facilitator, and thrift shop associate. For specific information please contact (940) 387-5131.
- Domestic Violence Shelter Volunteers – Mosaic Family Services, Inc., of Dallas is in need of volunteers experienced in domestic violence issues to assist with teaching ESL courses, basic computer skills, American culture classes and general shelter assistance. Training will provided at time of hire and will occur at the main office in Dallas. For more information contact (214) 821-5393
- Family Outreach of Denton County: Multiple Opportunities– Volunteers are needed to help with mentoring in home services to parents “at risk” of abusing or neglecting their children. Also, volunteers interested in volunteering with fundraising activities or joining the Board is welcomed too. The office is also in need of administrative assistance to help with office work and mail out. Contact (940) 349-2900 ext. 7904.
- Gladney Center for Adoption – Is looking for women 23 and over to work with birthmoms in their maternity home on campus. These are weekend opportunities and re between 2-4 hours in length. Some example would be going to the movies, a Rangers game, taking a trip to the mall, etc. The volunteer would be the point person on the activity and would be providing transportation, and Gladney covers the costs. Training is required. For more information contact (817) 922-5996
- Right to Life of Denton County- Volunteers are needed to help start and continue a Denton county Right to Life chapter. The goal of the organization is to promote a PROLIFE agenda in the Denton county area. For more information please contact Texas Right to Life at (940) 442-3434.
- Second Chance Resale Store – Volunteers needed to help with cleaning, stocking, assisting customers, etc. All proceeds from resale store benefit the pro-life pregnancy center. Located in Gainesville. For more information, please contact at (940) 668-2777.
- S.ircle o.f S.afety (SOS) – Their mission is to provide women and children, who choose to remain free from their abuser, a safe haven to heal and training to live independently. Please contact (940) 458-4302 for more information.
- Women’s Haven of Tarrant County– Volunteers needed for children’s programming assisting, domestic assault response team, hotline volunteers, clerical workers, internships, accommodate groups for yard work and labor projects. Training is required. For more information, please contact (817) 535-6462.
- Woman to Woman Pregnancy Resource Center- Is looking for volunteers to assist in the presale shop warehouse. The center is also in need of volunteers to teach abstinence in public schools. Training is required and provided. For more information contact (940) 321-6181.