

UNIVERSITY of NORTH TEXAS

Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

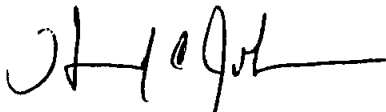

October 1, 2003

ATTENTION ALL FACULTY:

As established by University policy in compliance with HB 638 of the Seventy-first Legislature, all faculty must attest to their primary language to ensure that courses offered for credit at this institution are taught in the English language and that all faculty members are proficient in the use of the English language, except for the use of a foreign language to conduct foreign language courses.

All faculty are required by law to establish their primary language by completing this form. This form will be permanently filed with your contract. Those for whom English is not a primary language will be required to participate in an assessment program, and further information about this program will be provided when appropriate.

Sincerely,

Howard C. Johnson
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
