The screenshot shows the University Libraries website homepage. At the top, there is a green header with the UNT logo and the text "University Libraries". Below this is a dark navigation bar with links for HOME, ABOUT, RESEARCH, SERVICES, SPACES, NEWS, and CALENDAR. On the right side of the navigation bar, there are icons for a book, a building, a computer, and a magnifying glass, along with the text "ASK US" and "ACCOUNTS LOGIN".

The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, under the heading "START YOUR RESEARCH", there is a search bar and a list of options: "Search It All", "Online Articles", "Cataloged Books & More", "Databases", "e-Journals", "Subject & Course Guides", "Digital Collections", "Special Collections", and "This Website". To the right of the search bar, there is a section titled "Not Sure Where to Start?" with the text "Enter your search terms and we'll grab results from multiple systems. Got a DOI? Paste it in." and a search button labeled "Search".

On the right side of the main content area, there is a "FEATURED" section. It features a graphic with the text "DISCOVER.UNT.EDU" and a computer monitor. Below the graphic, there is a heading "Start Your Next Search With Discover" and a paragraph: "We've upgraded catalog searching to be faster and more precise. Search for what is important to you from our 3+ million items, including books, media, music, and more!". At the bottom of the featured section, there are social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.

The screenshot displays the UNT Digital Library interface. On the left, a navigation menu lists various filters: U.S. States (28), Counties (49), Decades (9), Years (63), Months (12), Days (31), Languages (13), Access (2), Departments (290), Degree Discipline (7), and Degree Level (2). Below this is a section titled 'About this Collection' with links for Overview, At a Glance, Latest Additions, Cite This Collection, Explore Holdings, and Contact Us. The main content area shows three items:

- Item 1: '1:1 iPads in 1st Grade: Two-Year Case Study of a Teacher's Concerns, Use, and Innovation Configuration'. Description: 'This chapter reports the findings of a two-year case study of how one first-grade teacher in a Florida charter school with 1:1 iPads progresses through stages of concerns and levels of use to achieve technological innovation. Findings inform technology integration practices and emphasize the importance of acknowledging change concerns associated with technology acceptance.' Metadata: DATE: 2019, CREATOR: Eutstler, Lauren, ITEM TYPE: Book Chapter, PARTNER: UNT College of Education.
- Item 2: 'AS 01-7'. Description: 'No Description Available.' Metadata: DATE: 2001, CREATOR: Falsetta, Vincent, ITEM TYPE: Artwork, PARTNER: UNT College of Visual Arts + Design.
- Item 3: 'AZ 01-14'. Description: 'This abstract painting is predominately white with green, pink and gray vertical strokes broken by an implied horizontal line.'
